Keynote Presentation

The Discourse of MFT: A Narrative Exploration

She has led workshops on various aspects of narrative therapy all over the world. Jill is known and respected for her warm, relaxed, and inspiring style, as well as for the way that she embodies the ideas she teaches. Her extensive writings include Symbol, Story, and Ceremony: Using metaphor in individual and family therapy, and Narrative Therapy: The social construction of preferred realities, which were both chosen by Behavioral Science Book Service as Main Selections. The third book, Narrative Therapy With Couples... and a Whole Lot More! was recently published by Dulwich Centre Publications of Adelaide, Australia. Dr. Freedman is the Director of the Evanston Family Therapy Center and an adjunct faculty at the Chicago Center for Family Health. She is one of the founders of the Narrative Family Therapy model. She has experience as a teacher, trainer and consultant worldwide. Dr. Freedman has been active in the promotion of gender and minority issues in the profession.
